

Internationally-oriented sessions at SLA 2009 conference
Washington, DC

Join colleagues at the following sessions, specifically oriented toward a global perspective of the profession.

| Day, Date, and Time        | Title  | Presenters   | Sponsors  |
|-----------------------------------|---|---|--|
| Saturday, June 13 (1:00-5:00PM)   | Researching U.S. and International Standards Information: Methods, Sources, Secrets | Karen Kreizman Reczek, Bureau Veritas   | Engineering Division (Ticketed vent #325)  |
| Sunday, June 14 (8:00AM-5:00PM)   | Global IQ: Cross-Cultural Skills for Information Professionals                      | Larisa Brigevich, Franklin Templeton Investments  | Social Science Division (Ticketed vent #505)   |
| Monday, June 15 (6:00-7:30PM)     | International Reception   |   | Social Science Division ; Europe Chapter; KIIE; Washington, DC, Chapter                              |
| Tuesday, June 16 (9 :30-11 :00AM) | Global Climate Change and Sustainability  |   | Petroleum & Energy Resources Division; Environment & Resource Management Division                    |
| Tuesday, June 16 (9 :30-11 :00AM) | Globalization: Emerging Opportunities for the Library Profession                    | Larisa Brigevich, Franklin Templeton Investments; Jane Kinney Meyers, Lubuto Library Project; Saule T. Omarova, University of North Carolina Law School | Social Science Division; International Relations Section of DSCO; Leadership and Management Division |
| Wednesday, June 17 (8:30-10:00AM) | International Information Exchange Caucus Breakfast                                 | Sylvia James, Sylvia James Consulting; Jean Cavanaugh, U.S. State Department  | International Information Exchange Caucus (Ticketed Event #907 - $30)                               |
| Thursday, June 18 (2 :00-4 :00PM) | Tour : International Monetary Fund/World Bank                                       |   | Business & Finance Division (Ticketed Event #1030 - $20)  |

