Dear Friends,

Congratulations to the Special Libraries Association (SLA) on the occasion of your centennial anniversary. It is with great pleasure that I extend my best wishes to all who will be participating in this celebration.

I applaud the marvelous work being done by SLA, which promotes and defines the unique mission special libraries play in our country. For more than a century, your organization has provided in-depth analysis, high-level support, and numerous networking opportunities that have enabled your members to advance their organizations' goals.

Again, congratulations on 100 years of exemplary service. On behalf of my staff, myself, and the entire 8th District, I wish you continued success in the years to come.

Sincerely,
