

May 15, 2009

Dear SLA and the members of SLA,

Congratulations on your 100th anniversary as an association! Experient is extremely proud to be a trusted partner of the Special Libraries Association (SLA). It is rare for any association to last this long, especially when one has to go through all of the changes that SLA has gone through over the last century in how information can be stored, searched and accessed. Your ability to adapt to the needs of your members through all of these changes and become even stronger – growing from 57 librarians in 1909 to 11,000 information professionals in 75 countries today – is a shining example of how an association should operate.

Your membership group should be equally proud of their important roles of delivering practical, focused and filtered information that helps their organizations to be successful. Whether in the corporate, government or academic world, these information professionals have a unique relationship as collaborators who facilitate accurate decision-making.

Again, congratulations from Experient to our friends at SLA. Here's to the next 100 years!

Best wishes,

A blue ink signature of David C. Erich, consisting of a large, stylized "D" and "E" followed by a horizontal line.

David C. Erich
Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer

A blue ink signature of Brian L. Crum, written in a cursive style.

Brian L. Crum
Strategic Account Manager