

COMPETENCIES
for
SPECIAL LIBRARIANS
of the 21st CENTURY

Library and Information Studies Programs Survey

FINAL REPORT

Special Libraries Association

Association for Library and Information Science Education

Medical Library Association

©1998 by Special Libraries Association
1700 Eighteenth Street, NW
Washington, DC 20009-2514 USA
1-202-234-4700
www.sla.org

All rights reserved.

Reproduction outside of Fair Use (Section 107 of the Copyright Act) is prohibited without written permission of the publisher.

Manufactured in the United States of America.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This survey could not have been completed without the hard work of the Advisory Committee from the Special Libraries Association, Association for Library and Information Science Education, and the Medical Library Association Robert Ballard, Robert Bellanti, Alison Bunting, Joan Durrance, Laura Gasaway, Suzi Hayes, Joanne Marshall, Sharon Rogers, and Scott Plutchak. Special thanks also go out to Jim Matarazzo, Fred Roper, and Barbara Semonche for their feedback on the final report.

All three associations gratefully acknowledge the library and information studies programs throughout the world who completed the survey making this insightful report possible.

